

School Data for the Second Meeting of Claretian Schools

Name of the Claretian Province	Chennai
Name of the School:	St. Claret Higher Secondary school, Karumathur.
Country, city:	India, Karumathur.
Teaching levels (mark with x)	Nursery School	Children School	Primary School	Secondary School	Upper Secondary School
How many teachers (including Claretians)		-				51
How many pupils?		-				1805
How many groups of classrooms?		-				32
How many Claretians?		-				02
Do you have a book of values and targets of each school?	Yes. We have moral periods once in a week with a prescribed book. Also teaching catechism is done outside the government stipulated class hours.
An educational project?
Would you say some of the most important values and targets in your school?	Honesty, Team work
What is your most important difficulty in your work as Claretian Missionary Teacher?	Unable to go for preaching ministry

Would you send me 5 pictures of your school?

Yes. The Photos are attached

Would you send me the shield and the motto of your school?

The explanation of 'the shield and the motto' is: Curriculum of St. Claret Matriculation school aims on the one hand imparting updated vistas of knowledge with all its scientific temper and on the other, addresses to the latent goodness in the children to love and serve the underprivileged. Therefore, fostering of "Love and Wisdom" becomes the substratum of all curricular and Co-curricular syllabi of the School.

15.12.2007

Headmaster